

1. ceteris malis mors ducis dolorem adiēcit. <sup>DO</sup> Death of leader added <sup>DO</sup> pain to other misfortunes.

2. portis <sup>DO</sup> attulerunt. <sup>DO</sup> They applied force to gates.

3. nomen novum <sup>DO</sup> iuveni <sup>DO</sup> imposuit. <sup>DO</sup> They place new name on young man.

4. ignis <sup>DO</sup> aedibus <sup>DO</sup> intulerunt. <sup>DO</sup> They inflicted fire upon bldg.s

5. dei Romānis <sup>DO</sup> aderant. <sup>DO</sup> Gods were present for the R.s

6. hostes nobis <sup>DO</sup> instabant. <sup>DO</sup> Enemies were pressing on us

7. Cicerō orātoribus <sup>DO</sup> aliis <sup>DO</sup> praestabat. <sup>DO</sup> C. was excelling the other orators

8. copiae aquae <sup>DO</sup> exercitū <sup>DO</sup> prodest. <sup>DO</sup> supply of food benefit s the army

9. Marcus amicus <sup>DO</sup> auxilium <sup>DO</sup> prōmisit. <sup>DO</sup> M. promised help to friend

10. quis <sup>DO</sup> Horatium <sup>DO</sup> Ovidiū <sup>DO</sup> cōferet? <sup>DO</sup> Who will compare H. to O.

11. pecuniam <sup>DO</sup> virtutī <sup>DO</sup> praepono. <sup>DO</sup> + place money before virtue.

12. Horatius exercitū <sup>DO</sup> praeeerat. <sup>DO</sup>

13. Numa Pompilius multis modis <sup>DO</sup> Rōmānis <sup>DO</sup> proderat. <sup>DO</sup> N.P. was beneficial to the R.s in many ways

14. Augustus M. Antonius Cleopātrae <sup>DO</sup> aequae <sup>DO</sup> reginae <sup>DO</sup> bellum <sup>DO</sup> intulit. <sup>DO</sup> A. brought war upon M.A. who had been injected

15. magnus deorum <sup>DO</sup> metus <sup>DO</sup> Numa <sup>DO</sup> Pompilio <sup>DO</sup> civium <sup>DO</sup> animis <sup>DO</sup> injectus <sup>DO</sup> erat. <sup>DO</sup> A great fear of gods had been injected into minds

16. Amici <sup>DO</sup> avertant <sup>DO</sup> Marcū <sup>DO</sup> obsecro. <sup>DO</sup> friends criticized M. for greed of citizens by N.P.

Feb 4-12:12 PM